

Ringframe extension straps

Details

These extension straps and rings are designed to be fastened to competition height rings to provide rings at a lower height for coaching purposes

The rings are laminated timber and are identical to those on our FIG approved ringframe

The extension straps attach simply to the rings on the standard ringframe by passing the ring through the looped nylon webbing on the straps.

Sold as a pair of straps and rings.