

Sprung bars with timber rails

Details

A unique piece of parallel bar training equipment with steel springs incorporated in the uprights to replicate the bounce in bars. For learning jump turns and a wide variety of other moves with and without support.

Complete with heavy duty rubber feet on the epoxy powder coated steel framework for utmost stability

The rails are 1m long